How it works

After a placement test, the participants are assigned to a class (A0 – C1 level) with an average class size of 8 students that matches their current German level.

Class schedules are based on the relevant programs. We have a wide range of courses offering the right program for every participant.

Including

- 25 lessons/week with max. 12 students per class
- Course material
- Leisure program (Travel and entry costs included – depending on the program)
- Enrolment fee
- Certificate
